Domaine A is Moorilla's sibling winery: a tiny patch of the Coal River Valley patiently making some of the most mind-bendingly brilliant wines in the country.

Big Bordeaux-style blends lead the charge, while elegant cooler-climate options (red, white, rosé) slink around behind—unhurried, aloof, delicious.

A Very VERY Special Stout

Moo Brew x Archie Rose Bourbon Barrel-Aged Stout 10.8%

The Moo Brew Imperial Stout has been aged in Archie Rose Single Malt Whisky and ex-Bourbon American oak, weighing in at an imposing 10.8%

The stout's rich dense palate is a complex matrix: high residual sugar from specialty roasted malts; Centennial hop bitterness; and an active alcohol vector amplified by Archie Rose's Single Malt Whisky and ex-bourbon American oak barrels.

Thirty whisky barrels were sent straight from the distillery in Sydney to the brewery in Hobart. This quick turnaround, from draining to refill, ensures a sturdy dose of spirit is bestowed upon the brew.

After aging for two months in barrel, this imperial stout has a warm black hue and fine espresso-like foam. The American oak imparts subtle notes of vanilla, complementing moreish dark chocolate, caramel and rum & raisin flavour profile while maintaining a high-proof zeal.

We think it's fuing awesome!
